Harrison Rife, Son of John & Jane Rife, was struck by a train in Matewan, W. Va. while intoxicated. Ransom & Jefferson Hatfield, sons of the Rev. Anderson Hatfield took him to the office of "ol' Doc Goins" in Matewan, and with the use of additional spirits as an anesthetic, they held him down while the doctor sawed off his injured leg just above the knee. The amputated leg is buried in this plot. He is buried in Tennessee.
